THE PRESS.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 2, 1873.

EVERY regular attache of the PRESS is furnished with a card certificate countersigned by Stanley T. Pullen, Editor. All railway, steamboat and hotel managers will confer a favor upon us by demanding credentials of every person claiming to represent our journal, as we have information that several "bummers" are seeking courtesies in the name of the PRESS, and we have no disposition to be, even passively, a party to such fraud

WE do not read anonymous letters and communications. The name and address of the writer are in all cases indispensable, not necessarily for publication but as a guaranty of good faith.

We cannot undertake to return or reserve communications that are not used.

Republican State Convention.

The Republicans of Maine and all others who support the present National and State Administrations are invited to send delegates to a State Convention to be holden in

Norombega Hall, Bangor,

Thursday, June 19, 1873, at 11 o'clock,

for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor and transacting any other business that may properly come before the convention.

The basis of representation will be as follows:—

Each city, town and plantation will be entitled to one delegate and one additional for every 75 votes for the Republican candidate for Governor in 1872. A fraction of 40 votes, additional to the full number for a delegate, is also entitled to a delegate.

Delegates are authorized to fill vacancies only with actual residents of the county to which the town belongs.

The State Committee will be in session at 9 o'clock A. M. of the day of the Convention for the reception of credentials.

May 1, 1873.

THE Gardiner Reporter comes out in a decided article in favor of the nomination of Mr. Stone.

The Bangor Whig denies that Hon. James M. Stone was telegraphed by parties in that city to go there for a political consultation.

A HALIFAX despatch announces the death of Hon. Joseph Howe, recently inaugurated as Governor of Nova Scotia, Sunday morning.

THE town of Unity has elected Dingley delegates. Unity is the native town of Mr. Dingley, and shows that a prophet is not always without honor in his own country.

THE Staats Zeitung believes that the resignation of Thiers and the election of McMahon were in a great measure due to the action of the Czar of Russia and the Empress of Austria and Germany, who were uneasy at the republican tendencies of France.

THE telegraph is silent, and the reliable Augusta politician gives us no further news of the hot Dingley-Stone fight at the State capital. They are a wise, discreet people, and are doubtless giving their attention to Kent and peace.

THE New York Legislature adjourned Friday, after a session of 142 days New York legislatures do not show up very well when investigated; but the one just adjourned, though not perfect, is a great improvement on its predecessors of the past few years.

THE friends of Hon. Noah Woods, who early named him for Governor, have not left the field, as a notice appears in the Bangor Commercial, calling his friends to meet at their "usual place." Will he be the railroad candidate?

THE New York papers have diversified headings for the Bowen-Tilton-Beecher manifesto, which was published Saturday. The Tribune calls it "the slanders against the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher." The Times appropriately terms it "galvanizing a filthy scandal."

THE Waterville Mail thinks that the agreement of the Lumbermen's Convention to fix the prices of the various kinds of lumber at certain prices for the present season, has more to do with the dullness of that important business and the retarding of building, than the threatened strikes in New York, Brooklyn and elsewhere. The New York papers however, attribute it to the uncertainty on account of the threatened strikes.

MR. PLIMSOLL's bill for the protection of British sailors came up before the House of Commons, Wednesday afternoon of last week, and failed to pass to a second readino. This is considered as effectually disposing of it for this session at least. The ship-owners fought the measure, and had to aid them also, an apparent general lack of interest on the subject, the prime minister himself, not betng present during the debate upon the bill.

THE increase of bank notes in the United States for the year ending in May, was $11,258,500, and the decrease of treasury notes $359,287, giving a net increase of currency for the year, of $10,899,213; yet, despite this increase, with gold at 1.10, as it was in May, 1872, and 118 now, the value of our paper currency in the currency of the world, has shrunk $25,303,794. And this great discrepancy is largely due to a clique of deperate gamblers in New York.

THE telegraph informs the public that the directors of a New York country bank have settled their affair with the burglars who stole $300,000 by giving them 35 per cent of that sum as a reward for their enterprise or possibly for demonstrating that their vaults are insecure. These business-like directors also promise the thieves immunity from punishment. Unless bank robbing is to be placed among the honorable professions, the bank officers, whose names are known, should be indicted being accessories to the theft after it was committed, tried and convicted to hard labor for a term of years. Bank robbing will hereafter increase.

MAINE congressmen seem inclined to let the gubernatorial contest "gang its ain gait" without interference—at all events, without very lively and aggressive interference on their part. Senator Hamlin is luring the wily trout in the depths of the northern wilderness. Senator Morrill is naturally very quiet at his home in Augusta. Speaker Blaine is conversing with Brigham, in Utah. Mr. Hale is in Michigan. Gen. Hersey is in the west Mr. Frye takes to the woods to-day, going a fishing. The absence of the political magnates perhaps accounts for the ludicrously confused attitude of some small politicians on the governorship question. We suggest for the guidance of these bewildered citizens, that it will be safe to go for Kent.

PARSON BROWNLOW (we wish he was clear of the salary steal), addresses a characteristic letter to D. H. Hill, editor of the North Carolina Home, and late Lieutenant-General in the rebel service, called forth by an editorial of the ex-General, which savagely exulted over the death of Gen. Canby, and attributed the death of Lincoln, Stanton, Gen. Thomas, and the paralysis of Parson Brownlow, to a retribution of God for fighting the South. Hill charges Gen. Canby of tying up a white man by the thumbs, for abusing a negro, to which the Parson replied, that before the war, it was regarded as proper punishment by regularly educated officers; and least of all, Gen. Hill should bring the charge who, while in command of the confederate troops in North Carolina, had twenty-six men tried and hung within twenty-four hours thereafter, simply for being loyal to the Union. In view of this, the Parson conceives that there would be a fitness in Capt. Jack and Gen. Hill uniting to write a treatise on civilization for distribution among the Ku Klux. He also states that he is recovering from his paralysis, caused by exposure and privation in rebel prisons, and when he finishes his term in the Senate, he proposes to revive the Knoxville Whig, when he will make it hot for Hill and his class.

THE last sale of coal indicates, as predicted that the price of that article will be no lower this season, but higher. The coal and railroad ring have full control of the business, and are said to be in league with producers in England. It is true that there never was a larger amount of coal at the mines and along the railroad waiting shipment, and that unusual quantities are being mined; but the proprietors of mines are evidently doing their utmost to exasperate the miners to strike, by increasing the hours of labor.

OUR State papers are publishing statements to show that Mr. Dingley opposed the cider legislation of 1872, and voted to repeal that law in the last legislature. The article of the Lewiston Journal in January, 1872, on the subject of temperance legislation, was widely noticed for its timely and judicious suggestions, and the declaration that no good results could come from laws on any subject that was in advance of public opinion.

EDITORIAL MISERIES.—Our readers are entitled to an apology for the fearful typographical blunders, both in caption and text, of our leading article in yesterday's issue. In spite of the most legible penmanship and the most careful proof reading, the editor is still at the mercy of heedless compositors, and liable to have his breakfast spoiled by the staring prominence of errors which he had laboriously eliminated from a disheartening proof sheet. The heart of the typo seems to experience a fiendish delight in dragging the harrow of a garbled text across the editorial soul. And such is life—in the sanctum.—Bangor Whig.

Address of Gen. John Marshall Brown.

Among the many excellent addresses of Decoration day that have been printed we have read none that were more practical, timely and thoughtful than that delivered by Gen. John Marshall Brown at Augusta which the Kennebec Journal publishes in full. We make the following abstracts:

Those who die for their country should not be forgotten by their countrymen. The palms of the victor's crown may fade; sooner or later must be said "ashes to ashes, dust to dust," but Honor does not die, the lustre of great examples does not fade. In far distant years the plough of the husbandman may turn its furrows where we stand; these graves may be forgotten, but the deeds of their silent occupants will have gone into history and the sweet aroma of their sacrifices will last forever. As we look about us it seems as if this could scarcely be. Barely eight years have passed since welcome Peace smiled upon the land, and yet the hurry of these latter days has almost driven that time of rejoicing from our minds; the grass has grown green and been cut down, the flowers have bloomed and withered, and once a year we gather them and strew them here. So recent the struggle, and yet how remote. Young men walk our streets in the full flush of manly vigor who only dimly remember those days of gloom and glory. Thousands of happy, laughing children at the widowed mothers' knee, look awe struck at the relics on the wall, and ask for stories of the mysterious past, when the father carried the sword or musket to the war; the father whose grave, perchance, no one knows, who when he said "Good bye," kissed with such love those baby lips, but never came back for those baby eyes to see.

But to day we bring this Past nearer to us; we have turned aside from the crowded thoroughfare of the world's progress to wander among the graves of our comrades and offer them our tribute, and pledge ourselves again to their memory and their work; not us alone, not here alone by this beautiful river, but by thousands of others, beyond the hills to the far north east, beyond the hills to the distant west, wherever a wounded heart came home to die, is this ceremony repeated; wherever on the painful road he fell, some hand to-day performs the sacred duty. Alas, that so many sleep we know not where! On distant battle-fields, in weary prisons and sad hospitals, their eyes caught the last glimpse of the brightness of the sky, and now alone the tender hand of nature decorates their unknown graves.

The lesson of this day is plain. Choose what subject you may, the thought will be tinged with the color of this beautiful memorial. The legacy of the patriotic dead is the noble example of their lives; the duty of the living is to emulate that example and perfect their work. Do what we may, this day must be sacred to one topic; the tender memories of the past, the solemn exigencies of the present; the various possibilities of the future.

* * * * * * *

Fellow citizens, am I wrong in saying that we need more loyalty, we, ourselves, here, now, to-day? Loyalty is obedience to the laws; it is more than that; it is respect for authority, it is faith in our institutions, it is self-respect, it is the spirit of mutual sacrifice, of charity.

The savage is selfish by instinct and remains selfish of necessity. Association implies and compels self-denial. Every man parts with something of his natural independence when he takes a companion. He gives up something that he may receive something which alone he could not have. The citizen of a free state, where the people are the source and spring of power, cannot be selfish without injuring his neighbor and his fellow; the development of a government is logical; from mutual benefits grow mutual obligations, and the concessions and compromises which are necessary for the public good become crystalized into laws. Obedience to these laws is a paramount duty of the citizen; without this loyalty there can be no virtue, no true happiness, no honor, nothing but vice and crime and disease and death. In this democratic republic the people are the law makers—what can we hope for if law makers become law breakers; if they make laws, or cause them to be made, which cannot be obeyed; if they look complacently upon flagrant disobedience, or smile at the paltry methods by which are evaded solemn enactments which have the seal and sanction of the State? Does the almost fatal facility with which we make and unmake laws, make the responsibility less serious, or lesson the need of patient research, wise preparation, searching criticism? How can we exemplify our confidence in our own judgments when the statute book contains for years laws which are not and cannot be obeyed.

After great periods of excitement comes reaction, after great exaltation depression, after great victories apathy, often over-confidence and boasting, sometimes, unhappily, arrogance and intolerance and false pride.

Fellow citizens, can this be said of us? It is said of us; it is true of us and makes our duty plain, to shake off this sloth and humble our boasting pride, and, cherishing the memories and examples of this day, to work steadfastly, each for himself and each for all and all for the State, so that honor and virtue and religion, and good government may revive and prosper and prevail. There is no sound or threat of war, but the country is not at rest, and there is much earnest patient work to be done. Free governments have been subverted, the greatest nations have had their decline and fall. Have we solved the problem in barely one hundred years which the Republics of the old world essayed for centuries in vain? The name of Republic is nothing without the substance; majorities may be tyrannical and despotic. There is a servitude which is contentment and happiness; there is a freedom which is not free. Let us not cradle ourselves in vanity and hug our own conceits and say to each other, we are great, our system is perfect, we are the envy of the nations, the refuge of the oppressed. We used to say those very words when millions of our countrymen were slaves, bought and sold and beaten and murdered under the very folds of our Starry Flag. God be praised that He has permitted us to cut that cancer out and wipe away that stain, though with our blood. Having done this tardy justice is there no more to do; is the problem solved, is our system perfect? We have the right of suffrage; do we use it wisely? Are our public men the purest? Have we lost the right to criticise and punish? Are men in power always the best men, are our representatives faithful to their trusts, do we relieve ourselves of the reproach of misgovernment by delegating our right to make laws to others? Have we less crime and more virtue than others whom we call less free? Ah, let our hearts respond, touched with the spirit of this day, and in the name and memory of that innumerable throng that have gone before, let us look the truth in the face and search out the disease, and having found it, cure it, if can be cured.

MARRIAGE LAW IN NEW YORK.—The new marriage law of New York, defines "fibs" as to age, responsibility residence and other facts deemed requisite by ministers to the solemnization of the marriage contract as wilfull and corrupt perjury, and punishable as such. The minister, in furtherance of this enactment, is authorized to administer oaths to the parties contemplating marriage and question them upon these subjects, or he may administer oaths to any other persons and question them upon the subject, and they shall subscribe to the examination. And false swearing under the act is considered perjury and punishable as such.

AN EXTRAORDINARY REVELATION.—A remarkable story is told in the London Record by a clergyman who signs his name and vouches for the truth of what he says. It seems that the minister of a certain parish died a year or so ago, appointing as his executors two friends both of whom were admirals in the British navy. Among his effects was a bulky package sealed up carefully and endorsed, "Inviolably sacred; to be destroyed." After mature deliberation, the executors decided that as faithful trustees of what their friend had left behind him, they could not destroy anything without at least knowing what they were destroying. So they opened the envelope and found therein two documents, one of which was a dispensation from the Pope permitting the deceased to retain his position as a clergyman of the Church of England, though actually a priest of the Church of Rome; the other document contained a list of clergymen in the same diocese or its vicinity, who were in possession of similar dispensations, and consequently to be relied on for sympathy and co-operation in case of necessity. If this statement was not made by a well known and responsible clergyman, it would be set down as an obvious attempt at imposition.

OAK GROVE SEMINARY.—The examination at the close of the spring term at the Oak Grove Seminary, Vassalboro, took place Friday. The term has been a most successful one, and has shown more fully than ever before, that this quiet Quaker school is one of the best in the State. The principal, Mr. Jones, will be married this week, to one of his most accomplished and beautiful pupils, Miss Virginia Costello.

The prize declamation took place Friday night. The prizes were awarded as follows:

First, George Low, Vassalboro; second, Daniel Smiley, Jr., Vassalboro; third, Fred T. Whiting, Orange, N. J. Ladies—First, Martha B. Peckham, Lynn, Mass.; second, Annie Virginia Costello, Bangor; third, Dora L. Brown, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The judges were Hon. Warren Johnson and Orville D. Baker, Esq., of Augusta, and Dr. Perkins of Vassalboro.

BOWDOIN COLLEGE.—On Wednesday, June 4th, the class of '73 will plant the Ivy, and appropriate literary exercises will mark the occasion. The orator is F. W. Hawthorne, of Bath; poet, A. L. Perry, of Gardiner; Odist, S. B. Cole of Brunswick. The exercises, open to all, will take place in the college chapel at 3 p. m.; whether before or after planting the Ivy is not yet determined. The planting will wind up with an "Ivy hop" at Lemont Hall. We believe that since 1866 the planting of the Ivy has not been celebrated here.—Brunswick Telegraph.

Captain J. L. Smith, who settled in Arizona twenty-five years ago, is of opinion that the Colorado Desert will eventually be a very fertile region. He declares that the grossest misconception exists concerning the vegetation of the desert. The soil is the richest in the world, and by means of irrigation, which can be cheaply secured, great crops may be raised.

"Mr. Speaker," exclaimed a member of the Arkansas legislature, "my colleague taunts me with a desire for fame. I scorn the imputation sir. Fame sir! What is fame? It is a shaved pig with a greased tail, which slips through the hands of thousands, and then is accidentally caught by some fellow that happens to hold on to it. I let the greased-tail quadruped go by me without an effort to clutch it, sir."

Summer,

Although the mother of myriads of beautiful flowers, is apt to steal the roses from the cheeks of those who are exposed to its fiery breath. At this season if there any germs of disease in the system, the heat is pretty sure to develop them. The bilious, the dyspeptic, the nervous, the debilitated, suffer more at this period of the year than at any other. They, therefore, require an invigorating and regulating medicine, and this desideratum has been placed within the reach of all in the form of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. To recount the uses of this invaluable preventive an remedy, seems like repeating a familiar fact that has been notorious everywhere for many, many years. Who does not know that dyspepsia, bilious disorders, constipation, diarrhœal affections, rheumatism, nervous complaints, kidney disturbances, and constitutional weakness, in both sexes, are relieved and radically cured by this powerful yet harmless vegetable preparation.

THE BEST EVIDENCE.

The following letter from REV. E. S. BEST, Pastor M. E. Church, Natick, Mass., will be read with interest by many physicians. Also those suffering from the same disease as afflicted the son of the Rev E. S. Best. No person can doubt this testimony, and there is no doubt about the curative powers of VEGETINE.

NATICK, Mass., Jan. 1, 1873.

Dear Sir—We have good reason for regarding your VEGETINE a medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age: for the last two years he has suffered from necrosis of his leg, caused by scrofulous affection, and was so far reduced that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A council of able physicians could give us but the faintest hope of his ever rallying, two of the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him, as he had not vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him VEGETINE, and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed his studies, thrown away crutches and cane, and walks about cheerful and strong.

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where his limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be perfectly cured.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of VEGETINE, but lately uses but little, as he declares that he is too well to be taking medicine.

Respectfully, E. S. BEST.
MRS. L. C. F. BEST.

The range of disorders which yield to the influence of this medicine, and the number of defined diseases which it never fails to cure, are greater than any other single medicine has hitherto been recommended for, by any other than the proprietors of some quack nostrum. These diseases are Scrofula and all Eruptive diseases and Tumors, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, and Spinal complaints, and all Inflammatory symptoms, Ulcers, all Syphilitic diseases, Kidney and Bladder diseases, Dropsy, the whole train of painful disorders which so generally afflict American women, and which carry annually thousands of them to premature graves; Dyspepsia, that universal curse of American manhood; Heartburn, Piles, Constipation, Nervousness, inability to sleep and impure blood.

This is a formidable list of human ailments for any single medicine to successfully attack, and it is not probable that any one article before the public has the power to cure the quarter of them excepting the VEGETINE. It lays the axe at the root of the tree of disease by first eliminating every impurity from the blood, promoting the secretions, opening the pores—the great escape valves of the system—invigorating the liver to its full and natural action, cleansing the stomach and strengthening digestion. This much accomplished, the speedy and the permanent cure of not only the diseases we have enumerated, but likewise the whole train of chronic and constitutional disorders is certain to follow. This is precisely what VEGETINE does, and it does it so quickly and so easily, that it is an accomplished fact almost before the patient is aware of it himself. ju2eod1w

Defence, it was not a pistol; it was a crooked umbrella handle. I presented it to him to frighten him and make him take back some insulting language.

MAY TERM, SYMONDS, J., PRESIDING.

SATURDAY.—Moore vs. City of Portland. This is an action to recover damages for an alleged breach of contract with reference to the construction of the Marginal Way. Ad damnum $30,000.

The plaintiff claims that in the fall of 1871 he entered into a contract with the city to move one hundred and seventeen thousand cubic yards of earthwork, furnish two thousand piles and spurshores, driven and secured, and one hundred and sixty five thousand feet of plank, for which he was to receive the sum of forty-seven thousand six hundred and seventy-five dollars; and that it was further mutually agreed that in case the full quantity of earth, piles and plank which the plaintiff had agreed to move and furnish should not be required in the completion of the work abatement should be made as follows: thirty cents per cubic yard for earth excavation; piling four dollars per pair, and planking at the rate of thirteen dollars per thousand. Plaintiff went to work under this contract, and after he had moved 60,491 yards of earth he was ordered by the city to stop, as the appropriations had been expended, and he claims that the damages to him resulting from this stoppage was $3300, and on abatements he claims $2900. He further claims that as a part of the 117,000 yards of filling he was to be allowed 30,000 yards of harbor dredging; but that the plan of construction was afterwards changed by the city, which rendered it impossible to use the dredging, and that he was thereby damaged $2200.

The defence is not as yet opened and it is impossible to state what it is.

Brief Jottings.

The quarterly session of Cumberland Lodge of Good Templars will meet with Evergreen Lodge at Morrill's Corner, Deering, to-morrow, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m.

The bugs and the drought are injuring early vegetables, especially cabbages.

The Deering horse-cars transported over three thousand passengers on decoration day.

A boy employed at Pond Cove, Cape Elizabeth, by Mr. W. F. Safford, recently fell upon an old scythe in a grass field and was badly cut in the side. Dr. Dana dressed the wound.

Don't forget to procure seats for St. Peter before they are all taken.

It is said that Rev. Mr. Bolmer will remain for the present with St. Paul's church.

The merry month of May belied her name and went off panting.

After St. Peter. What? The Hospital Fair.

The air was fragrant yesterday with the faint sweet smell of lilacs just bursting into blossom.

Dane came up to the scratch smiling yesterday.

A young man on Congress street Saturday night was called a "brute" because he accidentally stopped on a lady's trailing dress, worn, probably, to conceal hideous feet. Ladies should bear in mind that trails are not fit for street wear. In Europe they are only worn on the street by women of doubtful reputation.

A package of black lace, "cut on the bias" (is that correct), was picked up near the PRESS office Saturday, and now awaits an owner.

Much complaint is made concerning the destruction of small birds near the Grave's Hill road by certain amateur sportsmen of this city. If the offence be repeated it is proposed to arrest the budding nimrods.

The Musical Club give a concert at Rossini Hall for the benefit of the Hospital fund on the 4th inst. Tickets are now for sale at Lowell's and Stockbridge's.

Sixty dollars was realized for the Hospital fund at the performance of "Peep O'Day by the Emerald Club.

Some kind and anonymous person has sent a barrel of flour to the Hospital Headquarters, and the Treasurer is anxious to know to whom to credit it.

Prof. C. F. Brackett of Bowdoin College, was in town Saturday for the purpose of testifying before the Municipal Court. He has been analysing some "hop beer," and finds that it contains 3½ per cent as alcohol. "Small beer."

A collision of teams on Park street Saturday evening caused considerable excitement and some damage.

The lumber in Barnum's reserved seats has been bought at a bargain by the Overseers of the Poor to be used in some building about the Alms House.

The Anna Starbird concert troupe is at the Falmouth. It has just returned from St. John, N. B., and gives an entertainment at Portsmouth, N. H., this evening.

The proper thing to do now is to go over to the Hospital Fair Headquarters, purchase an umbrella, and then return the rain-shedder to the managers. A well-known member of the Cumberland Bar has set the example.

The dust flew at the corner of Lincoln and Wilmot yesterday afternoon as two dogs were about to part. One dog had been dusting the hide of another.

A pig-stye on Larch street was set on fire by some boys about six o'clock last evening. They had probably been reading Charles Lamb, and wanted some roast pig a la chinois. They would do well to turn their attention to the perusal of the revised statutes.

The Park was excellently well patronized last evening. It seemed so rural that many made calves of themselves.

A polar wave swept over the city Saturday night. People who had been complaining of the hot weather begged pardon piteously.

There was a brilliant display of Northern light last night.

As will be seen by our miscellaneous notices the Fays will continue their surprising exhibitions a week longer.

The Preble House is being fitted up for summer travel.

There is a petition on foot asking the City Government to employ the Portland Band to give an out-door concert one evening in each week. Music is needed to soothe the savage breasts of the young loafers on Congress street who persist in insulting every woman that passes.

Two sons of Mr. Fessenden, aged nine and twelve years, went down the harbor on a boating excursion Saturday, and did not return when evening set in, thus causing great anxiety to their friends. They returned late at night, having made the tour of Hog Island.

P. O. S. OF A.—Saturday evening Camp No. 1, of the State of Maine, Patriotic Order Sons of America, was instituted at Arcana Hall by H. J. Stager, National Secretary. This is the first Camp as yet instituted in this state, but it starts out with a good list of charter members, who are not alone able to build up a good Camp but may pioneer the organization of many others in this section of the country. As this order is new to many of our readers we will here give a brief review of its objects and present standing.

The Order was first organized in 1847 and continued in existence until the breaking out of the late war, when a general enlistment of its members compelled its suspension. Up to that date it had made considerable progress, as subordinate Camps were to be formed in all the New England and Middle States, as well as in the majority of the Western and Southern States. In 1866 the Order was re-organized in Pennsylvania, and to-day there are State Camps in Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, New Jersey and Maryland, representing from fifteen to two hundred subordinate camps each. In such States as have no State Camp, (it takes ten subordinate camps to form a State Camp,) the National Camp exercises jurisdiction. At present the headquarters of the order are at Philadelphia. Pennsylvania leads the list in having the greatest number of members, and shows nearly twenty-five thousand members under its jurisdiction. The National camp has been under way but one year, and consequently little effort has as yet been made to extend the Order, but at its next annual sitting in June, at New York city, measures will be provided whereby the subordinate camps of the Order will be extended in every State of the Union. The principles of the organization are, first, patriotism. By it is meant a devoted love for the free institutions of our country, of which education in our common schools is the safeguard, our national constitution and laws the basis, and our eternal vigilance the guarantee. Remembrance is the next; believing that charity should begin at home the members attend their sick, bury their dead, and contribute to the support of the widows and orphans of deceased brethren. Fidelity to each other, a belief in an allwise God, in the Holy Bible in our hands, a disbelief in the infallibility of any man, a contempt for political corruption and a firm determination never to yield up America's rights into the hands of America's enemies, concludes their distinctive character.

Any man who is eighteen years of age, born under the flag of the United States, obedient to law in his habits and calling, can become a member. In excluding natives of other countries from their camp-fires, the Order does not do so in any spirit of hatred or national jealousy, but claim for themselves the right, as they grant to others, the privilege of fraternizing. The Order is not partizan in character, neither does it administer any political obligation, believing that Americans, as well as those who accept our hospitality, if educated properly will vote right and place only good and true men in power. There are three degrees in the Order, the Red, White and Blue, attainable in progression. The ceremonies are instructive and beautiful, and based upon the history of our country.

Transportation to the Bangor Convention.

Arrangements have been made as follows, for railroad and steamboat fares to the Republican State Convention in Bangor, June 19.

MAINE CENTRAL.—Half fare tickets will be sold from the offices where delegates start, good from the 18th to the 20th, inclusive. A special train will leave Lewiston at 5 o'clock the morning of the convention, arriving in Bangor at 10.30, and returning the same evening. Delegates from the western part of the State and Bath must take the regular train.

GRAND TRUNK.—Delegates from the towns along the line of that road, will be furnished tickets to Danville and return for one and one-third fares. Tickets will be furnished by the station agent, to whom the delegate must present a certificate which will be provided by Col. F. E. Shaw, member of the State committee. There will be no other than regular trains.

EUROPEAN & NORTH AMERICAN. President Jewett, in the temporary absence of the Superintendent, writes that there is no doubt but what half fare tickets will be issued to the convention by that road and its connections, including Bangor and Piscataquis.

PORTLAND AND BANGOR STEAMER. — The company running the City of Richmond will take delegates and others from Portland and intermediate points, to Bangor and return for one fare. When purchasing tickets, those going to the convention will give their names to the clerk, and pay full fare, and be furnished with a free pass returning. The boat leaves Portland at ten o'clock Wednesday evening, before the convention.

The other roads have not yet been heard from.

BODY FOUND.—Yesterday morning, about eight o'clock, Mr. Coburn, who was standing near Galt's Wharf, perceived a body which had been left exposed by the tide in a nearly upright position, imbedded in the mud at the foot of the dock. He fished the body out and delivered it to Coroner Gould, who had it placed in the Eastern Cemetery for identification. Sometime in the afternoon the body was identified as that of Howard Farrar, a young married man, 21 years old, who has been missing about nine weeks. Our readers will remember that about that date we spoke of a cry and a sudden plunge near Galt's Wharf. It was at that time, undoubtedly, that Farrar came to his death. The body was very much disfigured and was only identified by the clothing, and by the mutilated condition of the fingers of the left hand. Dr. True was, by request of the relatives, called to view the body, but found no marks of violence upon it. Under the circumstances Coroner Gould judged an inquest to be unnecessary, and only a source of expense to the city.

THE FLORAL FESTIVAL.—The Floral Festival at City Hall Saturday evening, was a marked success, and agreeably surprised all who attended it. Though much was expected, so complete a triumph was not looked for. The large number of children, arrayed in white with a dash of pink now and then, had a very pretty effect. The singing was excellent, some of it noticeably so. The trio by the Misses Leavitt and Miss King won great favor with the audience, and the solo "Going Home with Willie" by Miss Annie Leavitt, called forth a double encore. Great credit is due to Mr. Fitch for his admirable management of the affair, and the large audience which filled the Hall have occasion to thank him for a remarkably pleasant evening's entertainment.

BATTLE OF NEWBURN.—Bosworth Post will bring out the "Battle of Newbern" in first-class style at Music Hall on the evenings of the 5th and 6th inst. Extraordinary exertions have been made to "mount" the play with a careful regard to the time, place and circumstances of its action, and our readers may rest assured that it will be put upon the boards in a manner worthy of being witnessed. Reserved seats are now for sale at Stockbridge's.

LECTURES AND DEMONSTRATIONS.—Prof. I. Stearns begins a series of lectures on psychology at Army and Navy Hall this evening. He promises a novel and amusing entertainment.—Judging from the testimonials he shows the promise will be fulfilled. The demonstrations are claimed to be "laughter-provoking, side splitting and rib-wrenching." If this be the case it will furnish a fine field for items.

DUST.—We understand the street sprinklers who are laboring so hard to keep down the dust on many of our principal streets, are to increase the number of their teams and will make an effort to-day to obtain sufficient subscription on Commercial street to wet that awful dusty thoroughfare, which has been almost insufferable during the past week.

WAKE UP.—The 10th of June is near at hand and the Ladies Executive Committee find it necessary to learn what is to be expected from those towns or individuals in the State who do not propose to be represented by a table at the Fair, but who do propose to make donations. That there are many such we know, but our knowledge must be more definite. Will not those ladies or organizations who intend to make donations, or who wish to ask any questions relative to the matter, communicate immediately with Mrs. J. T. Gilman, President of the Ladies Executive Committee?

Fancy and useful articles are of course solicited, but the Committee also desire contributions of butter, eggs, pickles, cheese and household articles of every description. There is to be a "kitchen table;" therefore such articles, no matter how small the amount, will be especially acceptable..

All articles addressed to "Maine General Hospital Fair, Portland." will be forwarded free of charge by the railroads, and delivered, free of charge by the express companies.

During the eight days of the Fair, Congress Hall, near City Hall, will be open day and evening, for the accommodation of visitors from out of town. It is to be used as a place of deposit for packages, clothing, &c., and responsible persons will be in attendance to take charge of the hall and to furnish all needed information to strangers.

MARY S. DEERING, Secretary.

MISSION SCHOOL CONCERT.—The Mission Sabbath School held in Mission Chapel at the end of Deering's bridge, gave their first concert last evening. It was a decided success in every particular. This school is supported by Plymouth and Free Street Sabbath Schools; Plymouth provides the Superintendent, Mr. Hinckley, and Free Street the teachers. A large number from Free Street School were present last evening and assisted greatly in the singing. The fact of two of their best lady teachers leaving made it an occasion of unusual interest.

FIRE.—The Portland & Rochester railroad depot at Buxton Centre, was consumed by fire Saturday morning. It was not a very valuable piece of property, and the loss can be estimated low down in the hundreds. The building caught fire by sparks from the passing engine of a freight train.

THE COTTON MANUFACTURING COMPANY.—The Board of Manufacturers will recommend the City Government to exempt the capital of the Casco Manufacturing Company from taxation. When this enterprise is successfully started it will doubtless be followed by others.

MATTERS IN MAINE.

A Cool Item.

LEWISTON, May 31,—The thermometer this morning was down to 38 degrees, a change of 52 degrees since Wednesday. Slight frosts are reported on low grounds.

NEW YORK.

The Return of Plunder to the Waterford Bank.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The total amount of stolen bonds, stocks, &c., returned by the burglars to Waterford Bank will exceed $300,000.—The result of the acquittal of Pete Curley, who was tried at Ballston last week and the beginning of the present week, verifies the assertion that this acquittal was by agreement with the bank burglars to be followed by a return of the registered U. S. bonds, railroad stock, &c., taken from the bank. The negotiable bonds were long since disposed of and could not be returned under any agreement. Those who lost by the burglary will now receive from 50 to 70 per cent. of their loss. There is much rejoicing in consequence, but loud threats are now freely muttered against Peter Curley should he ever show himself in the vicinity.

The Steamer Cromwell.

NEW YORK, May 31.—The owners of the steamship George Cromwell, now over due at New Orleans from this port, feel no uneasiness as to her safety, she being a very strong seaworthy boat. She has five first-class life-boats She had only seven passengers who, with thirty officers and crew could be accommodated in the life-boats.

Licenses.

The Board of Excise have classified licenses into five grades. The first-class, hotels and barrooms will pay $250 a year; the secone class, hotels and restaurant, $150; saloons, where liquor is sold and drank on the premises, $100; where liquors in quantities less than five gallons, such as drug stores, $60; and ale and beer saloons, $30.

The fire at Hoboken broke out about 5 a. m., and in a few minutes the ferry house and the offices of the Delaware & Lackawanna Railway were in flames. Four trains in the depot had fire up, and were run out and saved. Four freight cars were burned. The total loss, including the depot and docks, is estimated at $55,000

WASHINGTON.

A Contested Claim.

WASHINGTON, May 31—A curious quarrel has arisen between the Clerk of the House of Representatives and the photographer Brady, concerning an historical chair taken from the House some nine years ago. Brady borrowed it for he purpose of taking the picture of Lincoln shortly before his assassination. Brady has retained it since and has used it on important occasions.

Thaddeus Stevens occupied it when the photograph of the impeachment managers was taken. It was overlooked at the recent sale. A friend of Mr. Stevens has learned its whereabouts and desired to purchase. Mr. Brady refused to surrender it, claiming that it was a gift to him from President Lincoln. The Clerk of the House has made a demand for the property and threatens litigation.

The Civil Service Board.

The Civil Service Advisory Board will not conclude its session to-day, as has been expected. It is represented by a member of the Board that the report will substantially endorse the Elliott system with some modifications in details. The report will not be made for several days.

Internal Revenue Receipts.

The amount of internal revenue receipts today are $631,911; the total for the month is $12,353,197; and $106,910,222 are the total receipts for the fiscal year thus far, which is only $2,383,978 less than the estimate of the commissioner for the entire fiscal year. The present indications are that the receipts during June will make a total at least of $8,000,000 in excess of the estimates.

The Mexican Raid.

The Mexican Minister has not yet received a full official account of the particulars attending Gen. McKenzie's operations against the Diapans and Kickapoos, and therefore is not prepared to present the case to our government with a view to an explanation. There is no doubt but that these will be placed on the ground of duty of the government to protect its citizens and punish all hostile invaders on its soil whenever found, the Mexican government being unwilling or unable to prevent such incursion. It is said in military circles that the operations of McKenzie will doubtless serve as a warning to all armed bands who cross to our territory for plundering or murderous purposes.

It is not thought in diplomatic quarters that any change will be made in the French legation at Washington.

The Pacific-Mobilier Suit.

Nothing has been heard at the Department of Justice as to the course to be pursued by the defendants in the suit against the Union Pacific railroad Co. One of the counsel for the government says the defendants will of course use every possible means to defeat the bill in equity and that any astute lawyer could force their line of proceeding, which includes a denial of the constitutionality of the act of Congress authorizing the suit to be brought against parties connected with the Union Pacific and Credit Mobilier corporations. No one in official circles can form an opinion as to the duration of the suit, further than that several years will elapse before it can be brought to a termination.

Street Improvements.

Treasury Bulletin.

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the Assistant Treasurer in New York to give notice that during the month of June, he will purchase $500,000 in bonds on the first and third Wednesdays each, and will sell $2,000,000 gold on the first and third Thursdays each, and $1,500,000 on the second and fourth Thursdays each. In all he will sell $7,000,000 gold, and purchase $1,000,000 bonds.

Various Thieves.

BOSTON, June 1.—The messenger of the Revere National bank, Allen, disappeared last Thursday with checks and drafts amounting to about $30,000, on which he raised $8000 cash. What he did with the remainder is unknown, though possibly he may have converted them into money otherwise than at banks. Just before he left the bank Thursday morning, he was informed his services would not be required here after June 1.

Robert N. Dudley is under arrest in Boston, charged with receiving and disposing of drafts and other valuables stolen from the mails. His alleged accomplice was R. M. Wales, a route postal clerk between Toledo and Buffalo, who was arrested about a year ago. Dudley is said to have made over $50,000 by his operations. He had recently purchased a handsome cottage in Mattapan, near Boston, under the name of E. H. Purcell, and fitted it up with much luxury. The establishment was taken possession of yesterday by government officers, and its occupant committed to jail. He will probably be sent west for trial.

Frederick Goss, aged 17, was drowned Saturday at Laconia, N. H., while sailing.

THE MODOCS.

CAPT. JACK AGAIN ESCAPES.

CAMP ON BANKS OF YELLOW CREEK, 21 miles north of Boyles' Camp, Tule Lake Peninsular, May 29.—The cavalry and artillery commands and Warm Spring Indians under Col. Green, left Boyles' camp at 2 o'clock this morning, and rode in hot haste to Clear Lake, where Gen. Davis issued special orders for the scouts. Bogus Charley, Steamboat Frank Shacknasty Jim and Hooker Jim, accompanied the expedition to lead the way to Capt. Jack's Willow Creek retreat. They led the troops to a point near Jack's retreat, within a mile of his stronghold. Col. Hasbrouck passed up the north side of the creek with his squadron, and Capt. Jackson's squadron went over the creek along the south side. Capt. Hasbrouck, having a mile further to travel than Capt. Jackson, did not arrive at the stronghold in time to accomplish the desired codnection. Jack was nevertheless, surprised. At 2 o'clock this afternoon, Jackson's men came across two pickets on a bluff near the creek, and ran them through the juniper to Jack's retreat. The fleeing Modocs cried out "run quick, run quick, the soldiers are coming." Capt. Jackson deployed his skirmishers along the face of the bluff, and though expecting to receive a heavy fire, the men ran to the front like deer, under the lead of their officers. Suddenly, the Modocs, conversant with English, cried out, "surrender we no fight we want talk peace; we like peace talk." Boston Charley, the murderer of Rev. Dr. Thomas, came in full view, and was immediately covered by a dozen rifles. Charley offered to surrender, and was allowed to come into camp. As he feared the Warm Spring scouts, he threw down his rifle and extended his hands in token of friendship, and the proffered member was cordially grasped by the scouts.

Charley was then passed to the rear under a guard. Next he was taken to the other Modoc captives and by them interviewed. He said that several of Capt. Jack's best warriors wanted to leave him and come to our camp and volunteered to put up a job. His gun was returned to him and he was allowed to depart on his mission. Hardly had this arrangement been effected when a rifle in the hand of Steam boat Frank was accidentally discharged. Several Modocs who stood with unlifted hands decamped at this point. The accident was explained by Charley and all suspicions of foul play were banished when another accident caused Charley more annoyance. Capt. Hasbrouck's crowd reached the edge of the creek as Charley came over the bluff and of course he was gathered as a prisoner the second time.

Boston Charley, as peace commissioner, two hours afterwards was sent after the fleeing Modocs, but failed to overtake them. Had Hasbrouck formed the desired connection in time the entire band would have been killed or captured, but it was impossible for his command to accomplish the task. His troops did all that could be done by any men. They rode over fragments of lava and one mile further than the distance ridden by Capt. Jackson's command. The surprise resulted in the surrender of Boston Charley, Princess Mary, sister of Capt. Jack, Black Jim's woman and five other female Modocs, ranging from nine to ninety years of age, and seven ponies and mules. The Modocs actually slipped from the grasp of the troops. Capt. Jack's retreat this time was inside a canon through which runs Willow Creek. It has precipitous sides, overhanging forty feet high. There are but few places where the canon can be entered by troops within six miles of Capt. Jack's last home. The Modocs escaped by running down the canon. So now the Modoc captives will try to wean more of Capt. Jack's warriors from him.

LONGELL'S VALLEY, May 30.—At 6 o'clock yesterday morning the troops left Wilsok Creek camp for a sharp and decisive scout, and met with admirable success. The Warm Springs trailed the Modocs across the creek and in a north-easterly direction, then due north, and finally to a rocky cliff by Langell's Valley on the east. The halt was broken by a sudden yell from the Warm Spring Indians and cheers from the soldiers, and the command of forward was given by Col. Green. Capt. Hasbroucks squadron held another equally important position, and was as usual on time. Along the crest of the bluff and down the steep trail on its sides charged the entire force of 230 men. Suddenly four rifle shots were fired from the rocks and four bullets buzzed over the soldiers. A line of skirmishers were deployed along the crest of the bluff which started the Modocs from their lair. About this time Scar Face Charlie and two or three Modocs rushed down the rocks and cried out, "We surrender, don't shoot." Five Modocs came in and at once hostilities ceased.

Dr. Cabaness of Yreka, a contract surgeon, who has long been acquainted with the Modocs, went up among the rocks and made peace negotiations. All the Indians, including Jack, agreed to come in. Cabaness slept with them last night. A few moments since Scar Faced Charley, Old Scorchin and ten warriors surrendered, Capt. Jack and thirty others decamped during the night.

Railroad Speculations.

CHICAGO, May 1.—A number of prominent railroad men are in the city, among them are Horace F. Clark, Augustus Schell, of New York, John Duff of Boston and John A. Tracey. A good deal of interest has been created by the rumor that the New York Central interest had obtained control of a majority of the stock of the North Western and of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific R. R., and would at the annual election for directors which occurs here on Wednesday, make a radical change in the management by throwing out Mr. Tracy and his friends. While it is probably true that Mr. Clark and associates hold a majority of the North Western and a large interest in the Rock Island & Pacific; the Illinois statute which permits the election of only three directors at any annual election, would prevent an immediate radical change in the management of either road, but it is now understood that the interest of the New York Central will be the best subserved by retaining Mr. Tracy in the Presidency of the roads mentioned, and whoever may be elected to directory on Wednesday will not interfere with the management.

THE BENDER MURDERS IN KANSAS.

Confession and Suicide of an Accomplice.

PARSONS, KS., May 31.—County Attorney Ward returned yesterday from Texas with the body of Nicholas Mouin, or Marion, who is supposed to be an accomplice of the Bender family, the Kansas assassins. At Denison he made some important confessions and promised to tell all he knew about the Benders when he reached this city, but when near Stoka Station, Indian Territory, he shot himself in the head with a revolver, inflicting a wound from which he died. It seems certain that the Benders are now in Texas, making their way to the Rio Grande River to cross into Mexico.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, June 1.—A young man supposed to be young Bender, a son of a well-known murderer, was arrested in West Liberty Iowa, yesterday and a woman supposed to be Mrs. Bender was arrested at Oxford, Iowa. There seems to be little doubt as to their identity. Both parties are held for further development.

The Chicago Jubilee.

CHICAGO, May 31.—The jubilee committee has announced their full programme, in which they are joined by the local authorities and park board, and have designated two full days for the jubilee. The concerts will be led by Gilmore, and take place Thursday, June 5, in the depot coliseum. On Friday, the grand carriage cortege will visit the park, and an entire circuit of the city on the Belt steam railway, for the first time used for passenger cars, will be made. On Saturday, a grand steamboat excursion takes place on the lake. Under half fare arrangements on railroads, people are already coming by thousands from all points to see the new Chicago and the rebuilding jubilee.

A Railroad Grant.

MILWAUKEE, May 31.—A Madison despatch says assistant attorney-general Spooner has given his opinion that the proposed pooling arrangements between Milwaukee and St. Paul, and Chicago and Northwestern railroad companies, is contrary to law which prohibits a consolidation of the two roads, if not to the letter of the State law of 1867, and that if such an arrangement is consummated, it would be his duty to apply to the Supreme Court for leave to bring in an action of quo warranto against these corporations.

Trailing Arbutus.

BY ROSE TERRY.

Darling of the forest!
Blossoming alone,
When Earth's grief is sorest
For her jewels gone—
Ere the last snow drift melts your tender buds have blown.

Tinged with color faintly,
Like the morning sky,
Or more pale and saintly,
Wrapped in leaves ye lie—
Even as children sleep in faith's simplicity.

There the wild-wood robin
Hymns your solitude,
And the rain comes sobbing
Through the building wood,
While the low south wind sighs, but dare not be more rude.

Were your pure lips fashioned
Out of air and dew;
Starlight unimpassioned,
Dawn's most tender hue—
And scented by the woods that gathered sweets for you.

Fairest and most lonely,
From the world apart,
Made for beauty only,
Veiled from nature's heart,
With such unconscious grace as marks the dream of art!

Were not mortal sorrow
An immortal shade,
Then would I to-morrow
Such a flower be made,
And live in the dear woods, where my lost childhood played.

LAWS
UNITED STATES

PASSED AT THE

THIRD SESSION OF THE FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 58.]

AN ACT making appropriations for the naval service for the year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and they are hereby, appropriated, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the naval service of the government for the year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and for other purposes:

For pay of commissioned and warrant officers at sea, (including sea-pay and rations of officers detailed or appointed as naval storekeepers abroad,) on shore, on special service, and of those on the retired list and unemployed, and for mileage and transportation of officers travelling under orders, and for pay of the petty-officers, seamen, ordinary seamen, landsmen, and boys, including men of the engineer's force, and for the Coast-Survey service, eight thousand five hundred men, at an average pay of three hundred dollars each per annum, six million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars: Provided, That no officer on the retired list of the navy shall be employed on active duty except in time of war: And provided, That those officers on the retired list, and those hereafter retired, who were, or may be, retired after forty years' service, or on attaining the age of sixty-two years, in conformity with section one of the act of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and its amendments, dated June twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, or those who were or may be retired from incapacity resulting from long and faithful service, from wounds or injuries received in the line of duty, from sickness or exposure therein, shall, after the passage of this act, be entitled to seventy-five per centum of the present sea-pay of the grade or rank which they held at the time of their retirement.
